The federal government, by way of the National Institute of Health (NIH), and more specifically through the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID)—under the direction of Dr. Anthony Fauci—has been massively funding the development of the Moderna mRNA COVID-19 vaccine with U.S. taxpayer money since the process to develop vaccines for the pandemic got underway.

Additionally, scientists from the NIH are involved in some of the associated patents for the mRNA vaccine. As early as 2013, the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) gave up to $25 million to Moderna to help develop its mRNA technology.

Since no one appreciated my critique of the Founders deceptions and frauds, (couldn't handle those facts/truths) I thought to share the following with all those that are waiting so ignorantly on God's plan to bail them out for their own inactions. This comment will be my last, knowing it will also please Dianne Marshall. Reading is only reading if there is no comprehension of the word. Good luck to all those children in adult bodies waiting on God and Q's plan to bail you out of your responsibilities.

Let's just say the following maybe the most accurate account of Satan and Lucifer. And for a current event relationship let's change the names Lucifer and Satan to a ruling politician person as a possible follower of the fallen ones. I have always considered the bible to be a tough study because there are so many incomplete stories and omissions. After all Genesis is such a short story compared to the rest of the bible considering it's importance as the foundations for mankind. You must always have a good comprehension of the first chapter of any written event as it is the foundation for what is to come in the next chapters.

Some claim God created Satan. But that is not really true. God created Lucifer. That may seem like a small distinction at first glance, but once you understand who really made Satan, it will change your perspective of him forever.

You should never again doubt your authority over the devil. You will realize that he is an inferior being, unable to do anything without the cooperation of a human being. And any fear you have of him will disappear as you realize he is nothing but a big zero impersonator.

I believe that God created everything, including Lucifer. He created Lucifer as a powerful anointed angel. However, Lucifer wasn't satisfied with that, and he didn't remain the anointed cherub that God created him to be.

Ezekiel 28:13-14 described him as he originally was in the Garden of Eden:

"Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire."

See most people believe that Lucifer took one-third of the angels and rebelled against God in heaven, where he was defeated and then cast to earth. This is all taken from one scripture, in Revelation 12:4, and was popularized by Finis Dake in the Dake's Bible commentary.

I don't believe that is what actually happened. I believe that Satan was originally on this earth in the Garden of Eden as Lucifer. He was God's number one angel sent to earth to be a blessing to Adam and Eve.

Hebrews 1:14 says this about angels:

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?"

Seems Lucifer wasn't sent to the earth to tempt Adam and Eve but to bless them. He was an angelic being sent to be their protector, to minister to them, and to serve them. He was there on a divine mission, still in his perfect state. It was in the Garden that his transgression against God was conceived and carried out.

Ezekiel 28:15 goes on to say,

"Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee."

I have never been able to follow the logic that God sent Satan to earth to tempt man and see how he would respond. As a father, would you take your two-year-old child and put him or her in a cage with a lion just to see how he or she would respond? That would obviously be irresponsible; the child would be no match for the lion. God wouldn't do that to us, and he didn't do that to Adam and Eve.

So, what made Lucifer turn against God? Lucifer watched as God did something for man that He had never done with any other of His creation. When God created man, not only was he made in the very image of God, but he was then given unconditional authority over this earth.

Genesis 1:26 says,

“And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.”

He didn’t say to them, “Now as long as you follow my leading and as long as you do what I want you to do, I will let you have dominion over the earth.” There was zero qualification for this power and authority. Remember Adam and Eve were created as adults with a built in learning curve know right from wrong and with free will. God spoke it and that was it.

God says in Psalm 89:34,

“My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.”

In Hebrews 1:3 it says,

“Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high” (emphasis mine).

What this is saying is that God cannot lie; it’s the integrity of His Word that holds the entire universe together. Unlike human beings who reserve the right to change their minds, God will not violate His Word. When He told Adam and Eve they had dominion, authority, and power to subdue and rule, it was done. Don’t wait on God’s plan, he’s not going to post bail for you if you screw up.

Lucifer understood the integrity of God’s words, and when he heard this, I believe his antenna went up. He saw that Adam and Eve had something he wanted but didn’t have: They had unconditional authority. In a way, they had been made the gods of this world; it was theirs to rule and subdue. Yes the bad guys hate us but need us to a certain extent for our labors as an example.

We read in Psalm 115:16,

“The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD’S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.”

Damn this was our unique gift. How are we doing as the stewards of it’s care?

Even though Lucifer may have been God’s number one angel, he still wanted more. He was jealous and envious; he actually wanted to take God’s place.

In Isaiah 14:13 it says,

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north.”

The next verse says,

“I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.”

Lucifer understood that if he could deceive Adam and Eve into willingly relinquishing their authority to him that he could become the god of this world. He could take the authority that was given to mankind, use it to thwart the kingdom of God, and receive the praise and adoration and glory he wanted. What's a politician to do.

Romans 6:16 says this,

“Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?”

So, who made Satan? We did! The moment Adam and Eve yielded to Lucifer, he became Satan, the god of this world. You might be thinking, But Satan deceived them. Shouldn't God have stopped him?

Read 1 Timothy 2:14:

“And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.”

Adam knew what he was doing. He could not have known.

I believe the moment Lucifer transgressed against God, he lost his angelic power. Satan now has no power or authority of his own; he only has what he has been able to deceive people into giving him. Now, that is a powerful statement that should remind you of a politician, king or queen. Can you say impersonators.

Think about what that means to you as a believer. When we are resisting the devil and fighting against him, Satan does not have a superior power or authority. He is absolutely dependent upon the cooperation of a human being who will empower him with the authority God gave them. Do you remember who said, the people are sovereign. they rule, and the reason I got elected was to give power back to the people where it belongs. Damn if you have the power get off you ass and stop waiting on God.

Satan/Politicians are going about like a roaring lion seeking whom they may devour. Looking for people who will open the door through things like lust, rebellion, strife, unforgiveness, fear, and more. When we yield to those things, we are empowering them to destroy us, and I guarantee you, given the opportunity, he will eat your lunch and pop the bag.

Until you understand the power and authority that God has given you, you will never be able to defeat the devil and his followers, those that you allow to rule over you to receive healing, prosper, and live in victory. Knowing your authority is the key! This should taught to our children as an absolute necessity for every believer.

OK guys, now after reading this do you understand how to connect the dots back to my proofs of what America's Founders as Masons, Esquires and their worshiped Icons have in common with Satan? Come On Boys and Girls!

I see, as I read comments, all the boys and girls missed the point in IDing the fallen ones, the seed of them and their followers. Damn the messenger. The bad guys are, even if they change their names and impersonator status. O well, it's all in God's hands, right?, even though he told you what your responsibilities are. Reading comprehension seems to be a lost art. You can't rally your troops if they are still waiting on God to do their bidding.

The Worst Law School in America

The Western Michigan University Thomas M. Cooley Law School announced Monday that it is closing its Grand Rapids, Michigan, campus and consolidating operations in the state at its Lansing, Michigan, location.

The Grand Rapids campus will close Aug. 31, 2021, pending approval by accrediting agencies, according to

In the words of Janet Joplin “freedom is just another word for nothing left to lose” .. if we don’t live according to ‘natural law’, based on respect and empathy, creativity and sovereignty we don’t deserve the blessings of nature either... responsibility and freedom are two sides of the same coin (in my opinion), if you don’t take one side, the other side is lost.. still, I have good hopes -or better call it faith – because the Creator and Michael’s army always wins and those that follow them shall win.

I appears you can't handle the truth. The truth is always written in short verses and in simple words for understanding.

Just like – America was founded on lies we are taught as children. We the People lost the Revolutionary War losing all that was fought for, and there is no counter proof. All that the patriots fought for was lost. Washington never created a Doctrine of Conquest, he allow King George to write his own set of terms instead.

Not one POTUS or people's representatives has ever taken an oath to "the Constitution for the United states of America" and this too cannot be disproven

So, tell me mister know it all, what is it you and your side-kick Robert want from us here at Dianne's daily blog of information, gathered for the reader's choice and options to join in or simply follow. It appears to me, that you guys ought to throw your swords into the fight and since you have all the answers, solve the movie we are all working with day by day and night by night.

Yeah, most everything I was taught in school has already or is currently being changed to fit the new world order. Did Columbus discover America...I wasn't there were you..? I have my own answers and I'm sure you have yours. History, is what it is. I can honestly tell you, it was totally boring as a kid.

Seems you want something in the manner of acceptance that you know more than the common folk and don't like it when nobody joins your celebration.

Anyway, I'll choose my own path as I always have, and see you at the end of the street whenever I get there.

We have White Hats and Black Hats and infiltrated seats at the Pentagon and all the alphabet agencies. It isn't a clear cut military. It is a war between the military, we are in a struggle to save our Union. We have chaos in high places. God will prevail for a people called by his name who honor and trust in God. Where this goes is where God leads it. No man can win a war against God. Whatever the outcome it is God's will that shall be done. Amen.

The so called asshats are far from being in control. They follow the money changers. It is the worldwide octopus known as the Military and Security Industrial Complex. The deep state players foundations were set in 1781 and told to Washington by Cornwallis. Since those days America was infiltrated by foreign entities for the Rule of Law, Land Ownership, Banking, Currency form and Commerce practices.

Read the introduction to the King's 1783 Treaty of Peace, it begins to tell you what you were not to know for who was in control. no riddles, just simple words of written facts.. Read the backstory of the Founders for who they gave their allegiances to and the oaths they took to their private secret clubs they belonged to. Ask how many can one serve. Who is the power over the Military Security Industrial complex, look at their symbols on a dollar bills and their architecture on Capitol Hill and a top the National Cathedral. Look who is depicted as god like on the ceiling of the Rotunda.

George Washington as one of the head Masons was a traitor to the 3 Percenters and all that they fought for because he did not create a Doctrine of Conquest claiming all that they fought for. He allowed King George the actual loser of the physical war to determine what was good for him and his. This is what the Vets you speak to don't have knowledge of for considering what the real corrective actions are.

The latest count there are 18.0 million veterans, suppose they knew the truth. How many would remain as canon fodder order takers.

Perhaps it's because we, and I think I speak for many...do not trust not only the government of not only this nation, but across the world's vast horizon. And, to top that off, I can again speak for many who do not trust the military either.

Perhaps, they are doing their bidding by Special Forces and in the name of military, none of my business, which I was taught in boot camp, but, and it's a very big but...if that is the case, then why all the corruption in our faces, along with no sign of action, which in this new society of technology is pretty hard to hide.

I am old school, and as I have told many, on the downhill slide, freefalling and tell everyone to just get outta the phuckin' way..!!

I hate secrets with a passion, I hate flabbermouthed politicians, and I hate liars...so, where do we go sir Robert..!!?

I applaud you for mentioning our military and their activities, but at this point, I just think the populous in general really could careless and doesn't give a rat's behind about celebrating things like Star Trek..!!

No offense, just my opinion.

Now, it's beer thirty and time to rock a bit...have a good'in..!!

Where the ceremonies are inspiring, and you posted 9 such links, please do not fault a viewer for not making comments to them. Many people see things and never post. That does not mean they did not like what they read or viewed, nor does it mean they did. It is not required to post or like everything. That being said, the blog topic was not about ceremonies nor was it a Memorial Day tribute, it was about Toxic Jabs, CPAC and Trump's speech there, his mission now...it was about the war that has been declared on we the people and a rally call to be strong. So, Robert, where your intentions are good, it would benefit you more to read the blog more thorough and add what can add to it or oppose it, either one....but to go on a Memorial Day Salute was not the best direction to steer people who wanted more information on the topic. Just saying. Keep the faith and be strong. I have never chastised anyone for not commenting...so please Robert...what are you thinking? Thank you.

Robert, I went back to the blog you chastised readers for not commenting on...my comment was based on your own accusation not any I made. Your speech on respect is unique in that you are showing little respect to those who aren't doing as you want them to do. When you want them to do it. Your burden is heavy. Cheerleaders? No one is condemning you. There is no need to do such a thing. You have somehow not gotten the interaction you wanted and that is not any of our faults. I will pray that your frustrations are lifted. Amen.

Interesting

I am not in any of these videos

And My Post today is not in any Way About Me

Or How I Feel

For I have Nothing to Gain in weather people

Are Commenting on these Videos

This Post is about the projection
Or perception that one would get
That Gave so Much

Some one once made this statement to Me

We should choose to openly support and educate our veterans with these truths we know. Why?
Because it is our Veterans of America that have sacrificed life, limb and family. This has caused children of past and present generations to suffer without fathers in their lives day to day, thereby distorting social structures and slowly transforming the foundation that blessed us. Help us help you help the veterans and their families to receive what was promised and what should be to correct the abuse that has been laid upon them by the persons claiming to care aka POLITICIANS. Therefore, we should all be in contact with our local VFW Post and the Marine Retirement Association sending them letters of appreciation. Talk to them about these times and ask how you can support them in taking our country back to the original intent of the Constitution and Declaration of Independence.

is this not also true We Should Openly Cheer them on
On their First Day

How should a Bride Be Treated on her Wedding Day
Should the crowd be Bickering about the weather or where they are sitting at the Banquet Table
And not pay attention celebration and reverence of the beautiful ceremony

And not one of your readers have committed on even one of these post in celebration and reverence of the beautiful ceremonies that were bestowed on those that stepped up
And pledged their lives to protect this Great Country and Its Constitution

Robert, maybe you should put the texting shovel down for a while...you are either confusing the blogs you are talking on, or trying to dig your way out of a mess you have dug here. Let's wipe this slate and start over.

I think he is referring to my comment in which I used it with another spelling..oops, won't happen again. He could direct his comment to the person he is ultimately responding too also. I'm going to move on down the road. Time to downshift a bit.

Hi Robert, if I am understanding you correctly, you seem to be using our “lack of commenting” as a measuring stick toward how much we revere, honor and appreciate all those who pledged their lives for us and our country. That doesn’t feel like a fair conclusion to put on all of us. My guess is that every person here feels indebted to our military men & women who have fought for us. Please believe the best about us, and that our hearts are in the right place, even when we don’t reply as you hoped we would. We are on the same side as you, and we need each other (I believe) to get through the greatest challenge of our lives. God bless you for caring deeply about our brave soldiers.

Now I will ask Robert a question. How many veteran groups have you formed or supported? How many veterans have you went to personally to help. I hope many. But, respecting and helping are two different things. No one knows what someone on social media has or has not done in their lives. Nor what they will yet do? This blog is not a place to meander like a flowing noncommitting river for ones own destiny to find justice and God and shoot out myriads of posts and direct others back to find the first time you ever posted a thing and have them guess what you meant or intended by your clues. This is to inform people of what others aren’t able to find concerning truth that comes from those who are actually not meandering like a flowing river...but on the front lines fighting so we can meander. What they have to say is what we are sharing and in the process we are to uphold and strengthen one another...cheerleading? Really Robert? You are missing the entire mission here. This is just one of many blogs that are sharing what they know...it is not an end all...it is a footing...a hope, a source. One small wave in the sea of many. Respect us...how about that?

Robert, I am just trying to understand you here. You have always been a part of us...and shared so much. Why the sudden attacks? I'm confused.

Mayb rgb is confused, mayb sippin on some sour mash....I read all his comments..some I like some 2 me r out there...but hey we all think differently, we all live different lives, have different thoughts n point of views...but in the end run we all r driven to the same core of the corruption and deception of our down spiralng constitution and government in a hole.
